Artan the Sixth and Aziza, to the Nobles, Peers and Populace of the Outlands, and to all others to whom these presents shall come, greetings:

Right well pleased are We with the attendance and attentions of Outlanders at the Estrella War. We thank everyone who made that arduous journey, and We hope you all had safe travels to and from the war.

We are looking forward to Our crown lists which shall be in Our Barony of al-Barran on March 10th. We would remind Our subjects to heed closely Our laws as regarding entrants and consorts. Among these laws is a matter dear to Our hearts, regarding the submission and display of arms.

In days of old, entrants at tournaments bore their arms upon their shields and pennants, on their equipment or accoutrements. It is Our will that this Crown Tournament be held in such fashion, with arms registered to entrants and also to their consorts to be displayed clearly and appropriately afore and during the processional and tournament, that all may know those who seek to rule Our lands after Us. A lady's arms might be on a favor but should be visible. To this end, We have directed Our White Stag Principal Herald, along with such deputies as are necessary, to assist, observe, and ensure that Our will be met. The style of the tournament shall be determined the day of the Lists, depending on the number of entrants. We shall however, limit the weapons allowed for use in the tournament to Great Sword or Sword and Shield with no other weapons types or styles being allowed. Lord Alrik Boleslavsson shall fight the byes for Us.

The Outlands Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition will be held in Our shire of Drygestan on April 14th. We heartily encourage all artisans to enter and Our populace to come and enjoy the festivities of the day.

Kingdom Seneschal

Unto the Populace of the Outlands, good greetings this fine spring day.
I pray all that went to Estrella War returned safe. I hope all of you that went to war had an excellent time. If there are things that could be better for next year, I would ask that you contact the War Council before these thoughts become distant memories.

This month the Crown selects their Heirs. If you have never attended a Crown Tournament, I highly recommend it to you. The pomp and circumstance is great fun. There is electricity in the air that you won't find at any other tournament.

In April the Shire of Drygestan will be hosting the Kingdom's Arts and Sciences Competition. This is a wonderful place to see what others have been doing, to learn new techniques or processes, or perhaps find a whole new outlet for your own artistic side. The Board of Directors will also be holding one of their Quarterly meetings in the Shire of Windkeep. If you've ever wondered what happens at one of these meetings – now is your chance. Standard business casual dress is appropriate.

As always, I hope all of you are hale and hearty, bringing forth creativity, service and martial pride to the Outlands.

Your Servant,
Giovanni

White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!
I am honored to have been chosen as Her Ladyship Sorcha's successor to the office of White Stag Principal Herald, and hope that I may uphold the high standards she has set for this office. My thanks to her for her dedication, hard work, and the knowledge she has shared. It is with great joy that I look forward to working with good gentles across the land to help and educate.

I will be available at several upcoming events, including Estrella War, to sign scrolls which bear registered names and arms and need to be signed by White Stag. Please contact me ahead of time so that I can be prepared to verify those names and arms.
Yours in Service,
Marie de Blois

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Outlands,
I would like to thank everyone who went to war and participated in the A & S War point, the people who entered the competition, those that judged and Master Rhys for being the War Council Laurel representative.

Kingdom A & S is just around the corner. Their Royal Majesties have chosen the Shire of Drygestan to host this years Kingdom A & S Competition. Pre-registration is required and can be done by either of two ways: 1. by filling out the entry form that is on the Kingdom web page under "Popular Pages" or 2. by e-mailing the following information to me at: artsandsciences@outlands.org for each entry: See the event article on page __ for more info.

With Kingdom A & S coming up, please remember that judges are always needed. Please consider volunteering your time.

In Service,
Mistress Marguerite Dinard

Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber send greetings.

I have been asked for suggestions for youth classes and activities at events. Here are a few. A SCA 101 class on any basic knowledge of the SCA, including questions from the youth. There are period board and outdoor games in the Known World Handbook. Children and youth enjoy Quests that involve SCA history and knowledge. A SCA Quest usually involves a paper with questions and youth going to others to find the answers, people or objects. Prizes are usually awarded.

You could hold a Boffer Tourney. Advance inspection of the boffers is always important, due to the occasional unsafe boffer. I also recommend you require one parent or responsible adult to be present while their child is fighting. Also do several fighting divisions, so that the youth boffer against similar abilities and size. Children always love a Boffer Melee of the youth against the adults (eg. a household, the Stags Bloods). We recommend that before the melee, you hold training for the youth in how to be safe during a melee, including commands to respond to, and inspect all boffers to make sure they are safe.

We would love to see you also hold a meeting with the children and a separate meeting with the teens/pre-teens at your events. Ask them about their experience in the SCA. What would they like to see more of? What bothers them? What do they like? What would they have liked to have experienced in the SCA when they were younger, that didn't happen? Have someone write down the information and email me your findings at krege@aps.edu. I will share them with the Outlands Youth Team.

In service,
Lady Jayne Barber

Minister of the Lists

To the fighters of the Outlands, Good Day!

Estrella is now just another memory. I hope each of you had a safe trip, and a wonderful time, with plenty of fighting, reveling, shopping, and fighting.

I would like to thank everyone who helped in the list at the Outland's Prize Tournament. Since I was unable to be there, Her Grace Kathryn was kind enough to make sure everything was taken care of. I cannot thank you enough.

As Ever Yours,
THLady Mariah Abramsdottir

Marshal of Fence

Unto the Rapier fighters of the Outlands Greetings,

As we return from War! I hope everyone had an enjoyable and safe time.

Now preparations start for the tourney season. Start practicing what you will be doing, including 'dying'. It is easy in practice to get in the habit of simply acknowledging a hit. In tourney you owe both your opponent and, more importantly, the spectators a good 'death'. How others see us in tournaments affects rapier in the kingdom as a whole. 'Dying' when hit helps by communicating to those spectators, who were interested enough to watch the fight you were in, what happened. Be conscious of how you look and come across to those watching and listening. It is true that what we do in practice is what we will do on the field.

Also remember that the question asked by the marshals at the end of each bout is NOT rhetorical. Are you satisfied? If you answer yes do NOT complain about anything afterwards to anyone. The time to address any issues in a bout is during or immediately after that bout BEFORE you leave the field.

Finally, there has been some confusion about C&T. The letter from the C&T deputy should help clarify the program for those wishing to start practicing, and for those who are simply interested in the academic study of historic combat. It is directed towards marshals, but has good information for all.

In Service,
Don Christian

Cut & Thrust Deputy

Greetings to the populace,

Cut and Thrust is the latest form of combat allowed in the Outlands. This program falls under the purview of the Rapier marshallate but is separate from rapier. A second separate program for the academic study of period swordsmanship also exists. This purely academic study is Historic Combat Studies.

Marshals for Cut and Thrust must be specially authorized, and standard rapier marshals shall not be assumed to be C&T marshals. An authorized C&T Marshall shall be present for all C&T combat that takes place at an SCA event, including practices.

The weapon simulators allowed in cut and trust include blades that are often broader and stiffer than those allowed in the other forms of combat. Unlike other forms of Rapier combat, percussive cuts are allowed in C&T -- please do not be alarmed. C&T participants are required to wear armor as specified by the C&T rules (refer to the C&T rules) in any combat situation. Furthermore, all drills done within striking range of another fighter shall be done in armor. Please keep in mind that lunges are not part of the C&T form of combat, and striking range is far shorter than in traditional SCA rapier. Unarmored drills are acceptable providing care is taken to ensure fighters and bystanders are not within striking range.

Formal classes on specific schools of C&T fencing may also be a part of the C&T program provided the intent is to better prepare fighters for combat. If the intention of the class is academic study of period swordsmanship rather than practical application, it falls under the Historic Combat Studies and is not a part of the C&T program. Those interested in this type of study should contact the Kingdom A&S Deputy for Historic Combat Studies. The standards for armor and safety in C&T classes is the same as previously mentioned for drills. As with all forms of SCA combat, C&T marshals must comply to the standards laid down by the marshal in charge of the event.

If you have any further questions please contact me at govanen@aol.com.

Gone-a-Viking lately? Why not?! Well here is your chance to make up for lost time! Viking Vinter Vunderland, that crazy, hilarious and silly event is back to cause havoc in the Outlands once again!

Welcome to the event that has no schedule, that has prizes that you fight over to not win and food to fill the belly of even Erik the Red. No matter the weather, no matter the temperature; we will still be out fighting away and warming ourselves with the company of one's friends.

This event is a hallmark in Dragonsspine that carries a storic aura that is only passed in words. Come here tails of past glory on its fields, stories of fighting frivolity and the age old classic of, "In my day, I had to walk up hills full of snow for miles both ways just to get to the fighting field and when I got there, it was so cold my sword broke with but one swing onto my own head!"

So come a-Viking and play games of fun, eat food of great taste and company that could even warm the breath of Scandanavia on its coldest winter's day.

Raid the room, start out with shield, spear, and two axes, hit first targets, second with an axe, third with axe, and go into the room take what you can and get back to your boat, best time wins.

Light fighter, one table, one goblet, endless possibilities, last one standing with goblet wins.

The great game, three teams play the game, the object of the game is for one or two of the teams to get the object into the corner of the other team's goal.

Directions from the North: Take I-25 South to exit 144, Uintah St. Exit and turn left to head east on Uintah. At Glen Ave (1st actual stop light), turn right. Follow sings to park.

Friends and Fools of the Outlands! The Barony of Dragonsspine invites one and all to join us for a day of revelry in celebration of our annual Feast of Fools.

The theme of this year's festivities is Camelot. Whether it be Monty Python or the musical by Frederick Loewe that grabs your interest, come dressed for play in your Camelot best.

Come, bring your personal and/or family arms to decorate our Hall's tables and walls! The day will be full of fun contests and games for all. Who can wear the tallest hat? And the Longest gown? How far can you walk? There will also be some entertaining Rapier & Armored Combat Tournaments. Especially for the children, there will be heraldry classes (i.e. permission to yell really loud!) which promise to amuse children of all ages.

In the evening, during a delicious feast, we will be holding our annual Court of Misrule. Their Royal Foolishnesses, Lord Ximon Yssuri Zaldu and Lady Dianna of the Tulips, will be presiding over an exceedingly Foolish Court. Anyone with Silly Award recommendations should contact them soon. At the end of their court will be the traditional Costume Pun contest. A great example would be a person in dressed as a hunk of pork carrying a sign that reads "For rent: $2". (Answer below). The winners of this contest will be crowned the new King& Queen of Misrule and will preside over the rest of the evening.

Directions: Take I-25 to Colorado Springs, Hwy 24/Cimmaron exit (141), Head east on Hwy 24 for 18 miles. Turn right on S. Laurel and left on Midland.

Grand Outlandish Tournament

Torrance County Park
"Welcome to Novgorod "
www.grandoutlandish.org
Autocrat: THL Christopher Blackwood, Email – ChrisGraham01@aol.com

To all the known world, Their Excellencies Sir Gregor von Münchhausen and Lady Monika the Fair, Baron & Baroness of al-Barran send greetings,

"And having heard this, that a great Tartar force was coming against him, the [Great Prince] Dmitri Ivanovich gathered many soldiers and went against the godless Tartars, trusting in the mercy of God and in His Immaculate Mother, the Mother of God, the eternal Virgin Mary, calling to his aid the honourable Cross. For he entered their country beyond the Don, and there was there a clean field at the mouth of the river Nepryadva, and there the pagan Ishmaelites had ranged themselves against the Christians. And the Moscovites, of whom many were inexperienced, were frightened and in despair for their lives at sight of the great numbers of Tartars, others turned to flight, forgetful of the Prophet's saying that one shall reap one thousand, and two shall move ten thousand, if God does not abandon them."

As the winter snow fades away, and the leaves and grass regain their lustful green, our thoughts turn away from war and towards the great tournament. Their Excellencies of al-Barran wish to extend Their warmest invitations to Grand Outlandish Tournament. The site will open at noon on Thursday, May 24th 2007. In the spirit of the mighty Russian warriors of old, this year's Grand Outlandish will sport Fighting, Merchants, Fighting, Competitions, Fighting, Archery, Fighting, Arts & Sciences, and some Fighting!!! We will be once again choosing our Champions of Hawks Hollow, Defender, Protector, Archer, Bard, A&S and Grand Champion of Hawks Hollow. In order to qualify for this esteemed position you must participate in all of the events or be able to do something else if you are not authorized to participate in all of these to be Grand Champion.

Let us not forget that THL Roland will once again be the MC for the Crossroads Cup race, this is also a requirement for the Champions position. Start getting your horse race teams together and be prepared to run like mad.

We will be having our meal plan again which includes: Sat and Sun breakfast and lunch menu to follow. A wonderful feast, for a separate fee will be available for Sat evening, menu to follow.

Potable water is on site, dogs are allowed but must be attached to either a human or a tether that is attached to a tree or spike all times. Alcohol is permitted. There are no noise restrictions that we know of at this time. There is a full supermarket across the street and down the road. Also for those who do not wish to brave the camping experience there is also a motel, yes a real motel also 1 minuet from site. More details to follow along with a web page that needs to be put together so be on the look out.

Missives from the Board of Directors

Unto the membership of the SCA,

Patrick Anderson (Gabriel Andvaka Kjotrason) has been appointed to the position of President of the Society for Creative Anachronism Inc.,
effective February 1, 2007, for a three-year term.

Mr. Anderson has served as Interim President since May 15, 2006. After receiving résumés from several strong candidates, the Board selected Patrick to serve in a permanent capacity through January 2010. The Board offers its sincerest gratitude to those who showed interest in the position.

Respectfully yours,

Jason Williams – Chairman, SCA Inc.
(Duke John ap Gwyndaf, KSCA, OL)

Proof of membership has long been a requirement for sitting royalty, and a lapse in membership during a reign automatically resulted in termination. In order to bring officer requirements into line, the addition to Corpora of items I.D.2.a and I.D.2.b has been proposed:

D. Membership Requirements
1. General
Participants should expect to show proof of membership in order to qualify for member privileges. The level of proof required should be commensurate with the long-term risk to the Society posed by an erroneous claim to membership.
2. Officers
Officers at all levels of the Society must be Society members as defined in the Glossary and must have immediate access to the corporate newsletter for their area received at their residence. (Alternate access arrangements may be made for members of affiliated organizations or on a case-by-case basis for people with post office boxes and for International Members.) This standard also applies to deputies designated as successors to officers subject to this provision, or assigned independent administrative duties. Deputies who only assist with specific tasks are exempt from the newsletter access requirement.
a. The warrants and/or appointments of officers found to be without a valid membership shall be considered terminated as of the date of the lapse.
b. Warrants terminated due to a lapse in membership may or may not be reinstated upon demonstration of a valid membership at the pleasure of the warranting authority and within the confines of the governing documents and kingdom law.

The Board requests comments from the membership regarding this proposed revision no later than May 1, 2007. Please send them to: Corpora Revision SCA Inc. Box 360789 Milpitas CA, 95036, or e-mail comments@sca.org.
